Interfaith Paths to Peace Hosts 'Recipe for Peace' Celebration

On October 14th, our friends at Interfaith Paths to Peace hosted their 10th annual 'Recipe for Peace' fundraiser and award celebration. Several community leaders received IPP awards and music was provided by Harry Pickens. Learn more about Interfaith Paths to Peace.

MAC Honors Super Volunteers

Muslim Americans for Compassion is proud of our passionate volunteers. These are special individuals who give their time and energy to help the community. MAC recently honored Sohail Zuberi and Nashwa Saleem with awards for being

Give for Good Recognizes MAC

Thanks to your donations, Muslim Americans for Compassion had a fantastic showing at this year's Give for Good Louisville! Thanks to the charitable spirit of our supporters, MAC won two additional prizes for "Early Bird Donations" and "Most Unique Donation." Check out the full list of winners here.

Louisville Students Receive Supplies From MAC

MAC board member Fereshteh Ghazi collected supplies for Louisville schools.

Thanks to Mr. Payne Derrick, Manager of Walgreens in Prospect, for the generous donation. We appreciate the selfless efforts by these amazing souls to help educate children in our city.

The schools supplies were delivered on October 2nd to Aisha Blagaia, Principal, Nur Islamic School of Louisville.
